The Odd Fellows decoration will take place Sunday afternoon. Several prominent speakers will be present.

Mr. Jesse Arnold has accepted a position with the Metropolitan Insurance Company. Mr. Arnold will make them a good man, and will doubtless increase their business.

Circuit Court.

This Court convenes on Monday June 21st, and at this writing there are only 19 appearance suits, and 3 murder trials. The balance of the commonwealth's docket is very small.

No Oil For Streets.

After making a thorough investigation, the City Council has decided not to oil the streets. They were advised not to oil them while they are in the present condition, as it would be a waste of too much oil.

Meet at Perryville.

The District Convention of the W. C. T. U. meets in Perryville the 16 and 17th. The following members from here will go as delegates, Mesdames Rebecca West, Fannie Farra, Ed Price, Will Lear and S. D. Cochran.

$2,100 in Premiums.

The catalog of the Lancaster Fair is now in the press, and it will be most interesting when it is distributed, which will be in a few days. Their premium list this year amounts to $2,100. This is well worth working for and from reports, many are expecting a piece of this pie.

Another Lancasterian Honored.

Mr. H. W. Watson, who has been quite successful at the practice of law in Louisville has been nominated for Circuit Judge of one of the Common Pleas divisions of that city. This is a high compliment worthily bestowed, and is especially so considering the fact that he has just arrived at the age required by law to hold such an office.

Lightning Causes Fire.

About 9:30 Tuesday night the fire alarm was given and it was learned that Mrs. Rebecca West's handsome residence on Danville avenue, had caught fire by lightning entering the house on the electric wires, during a very hard storm. The lights were turned off just before the flash by which the house was brilliantly lighted. We are unable to give extent of damages. The family is thankful to the public for the quick assistance rendered.

Shooting at Richmond.

Joe Collins a young farmer of Madison county, was called to the barn Friday afternoon, by N. W. Sparks, a tobacco tenant, and shot through the bowels, death following in a few hours. We hear that the trouble arose over the tobacco crop. Sparks had not found at last reports.

Blankenship.

Mrs. Blankenship, the aged wife of Mr. Henry Blankenship, of Preachersville, died Sunday of a complication of troubles and was buried Monday. Deceased was a splendid woman and had been a devout member of the Baptist church for 55 years. She was the mother of Mr. John T. Blankenship, of Etowah, Tenn., well-known here.—Interior Journal.

Total Eclipse.

According to I. R. Hicks, a total eclipse of the sun is due on June 17. The eclipse will begin about 6 p. m., and will be so complete that entire darkness will prevail and chickens will go to roost. The new moon will appear on that date and will travel right along with the sun nearly all day, appearing as a bright little ring.

Jack Wins.

Mr. Jack Hutsell, who is well known in Richmond on account of his pleasant company and congeniality has won the prize offered by the National Biscuit Company offered to the salesman selling the most goods in a specified time. Mr. Hutsell is a right hand man to this big concern and is highly valued by it. He won the prize over 35 other competitors.—Richmond Register.

Holtzclaw-Gooch.

On Tuesday morning June 8th, Miss Zella Holtzclaw and Mr. James Gooch, both of Goshen neighborhood were married at the home of the bride's father Mr. J. T. Holtzclaw, Eld J. G. Livingston, officiating.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left to spend a happy honeymoon in Northern cities. The Record extends heartiest congratulations.

Beautiful Exercises.

On Thursday June 3, the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis, the Mary Walker Price Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy held memorial exercises in the court house.

After several patriotic numbers by the local band, the Veterans of the Dave Logan Camp, the daughters and children of the confederacy marched in to the air of "My Old Kentucky Home." The president, Mrs. M. P. Frisbie rapped for order and asked the Rev. C. C. Brown to pronounce the invocation, after which the Hon. L. L. Walker in his usual happy vein introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Prof. A. H. Throckmorton, Dean of the law school of Central University, Danville, Ky.

At the conclusion of his speech which was devoted mainly to a defense of the rights of the confederacy and to a eulogy of the men who fought on the Southern side, the band played the rousing strains of Dixie and the old Veterans rose to a man and gave the rebel yell.

Miss Mary Clay Williams recited a poem—"The Old Veteran." Misses Lucy Doty and Katherine Conn rendered the duet—"With The Boys of the Sixties." By request, Mrs. Fred P. Frisbie read "The Conquered Banner" by the poet laureate of the South, Abram J. Ryan.

The exercises were concluded with the benediction after which the Veterans and Daughters repaired to the cemetery to scatter flowers on the graves of eighteen men who wore the grey.

Republican Committee Proceedings.

The Republican Committee of Garrard County met at the court house on June 3rd. The meeting was called to order by A. B. Estridge, Chairman. R. H. Watson was elected chairman and Ed Chandler secretary of the meeting. The following nominations were made for county officers: For County Judge W. O. Mays, County Attorney J. B. Herndon; Assessor J. H. McQuerry; Representative, John F. Marsee; Jailor, Nathaniel Noe; Sup't of Schools, Mrs. Belle Burnside; Coroner, Frank Bourne.

After nominations the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Republican Resolutions.

Be it resolved by the Garrard County Republican Committee and the Republicans of Garrard county in convention assembled; That While we desire a full and complete county ticket for the offices to be voted for at the ensuing election, yet it is the sense of this convention that all the candidates shall give written notice of their intention to become such to A. B. Estridge chairman on or before July 1st, 1909, and that no nominations shall be made for county offices, or a convention called for that purpose, after said date of July 1, 1909, and that the "books be closed," so far as nominations are concerned, on that date.

On receipt of such notice on or before July 1, 1909, from any one or more desiring the nomination for a county office, or offices, or from any one or more desiring instructions for district office, or offices, the chairman will call the committee together for that purpose, by proper publication and notice. 6-11-34 A. CLOUD BURST.

One Drowned and Much Property Destroyed.

A down pour of rain, the like of which was hitherto unknown in this vicinity fell on Wednesday. It seemed to descend in sheets, for about two hours. The principal damage is East and North-East of this city, along the lowlands of Back Creek, Sugar Creek, Paint Lick and their tributaries.

The loss of the L. & N. R. R., will likely exceed $10,000, between Lancaster and Silver Creek, consisting of a washout of about one mile of track, and a loss of two bridges, one at Lowell and one at Silver Creek. The loss to turnpike property is immense both as to destruction of road beds and loss of bridges, two haying washed away on Sugar Creek pike, two on Richmond pike, one on Crab Orchard pike and likely others from which we cannot hear on account of damages done to telephone service during the storm. The loss of farm property, consisting of fences, crops, washed land and buildings cannot be fully estimated, but will reach many thousands of dollars. Many acres of corn and tobacco were completely washed up and destroyed, of which was a loss of nine acres of tobacco on the farm of A. B. Brown, Jr. Much hemp was left flat on the ground, most of which it is believed will straighten up and make good crops. The loss in wheat is considerable, Mr. Alex Doty losing a splendid crop on his farm near Point Leavelly, his loss in that and other damages amounting to about $2,000.

The store house owned by Mr. Warren Slavin was washed away, with the entire stock of goods, a blacksmith shop near it being washed away at the same time. The school house, for the colored, at Lowell, and 2 residences at the same place, together with other small houses on the creeks in the section described, washed away.

J. E. Dickerson, a traveling salesman, lost his wagon and trunk at Point Leavelly, they being swept away at same time the store was.

Property can be replaced but the saddest part of this story is the fact that little Lucy, daughter of William Whitaker, was drowned in Little Hick man, while her mother was crossing said creek with her and another child. It seems that they went down the second time and on coming up the mother lost her hold on Lucy, she being swept down the creek, the body being found afterwards.

Morrow-Marksbury.

Barely has any Lancaster wedding excited such wide-spread interest as did that of Miss Edith Myers Morrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Morrow, to Mr. Frank Baxter Marksbury, son of Mrs. H. A. B. Marksbury, which was solemnized very quietly Wednesday morning at the home of the brides parents. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. C. C. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church. There were no attendants. Only the members of the two families and a few of the most intimate friends were present. Palms, asparagus ferns, syringa and white lilies formed the artistic decorations. The bride looked pretty in a Copenhagen blue cloth with a very becoming blue hat trimmed in gray wings. Both families are prominent in this city, and both bride and bride groom are extremely popular.

The bride is a universal favorite in the community, of a lovable disposition and possessing unusual beauty. The groom is a prosperous young business man, known and liked by every one. He has been in the grain and hemp business here for several years. Many elegant presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Marksbury left for a trip to the coast, including the Alaska-Yukon Exposition, California, Denver, Salt Lake City and Yellow Stone Park. They will be at the home of the groom after July 7. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rice, of Richmond, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Louis Landram, of Richmond; Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Staughton, of Covington.

Austin-Turner.

On Thursday morning, June 3rd, Miss Fannie Austin and Mr. S. D. Turner, drove to Danville and were united in marriage by Rev. H. C. Garrison. They were accompanied by Miss Annie Turner and Mr. Mike Burnside. An elegant dinner was served to the bridal party at the Gilcher Hotel. The bride is one of our most attractive young ladies, and belongs to one of the oldest and best families in the community, being a grand daughter of the late Tom K. Salter.

Mr. Turner is one of our best business men enjoying a large friendship in this locality. We extend to Mr. and Mrs. Turner our best wishes and congratulations.

It Pays.

One of the most sensible men we have met in many days dropped into our office yesterday from the Duganville neighborhood. We were running our paper off, and noticing the hustling qualities of our merchants in the advertising line, he said: "You can't have too many ads in your paper to suit me, and I read every one you have in every issue. Your paper only costs me a dollar a year and I know my wife and I made over a hundred dollars by watching and reading the advertisements. Besides, I made $50 from a sheep ad I saw in the Herald." It does one's heart good to meet a level-headed man like this.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Lancaster, - - Kentucky.

Mr. Jack Adams.

The Democratic party of Garrard county is quite fortunate in having Jack Adams its nominee for jailer of the county. Everybody knows "Jack," he is everybody's friend and everybody is his friend.

He was born in Rockcastle county, February 2nd, 1852. He has had farming interests, has dealt extensively in coal and grain, has been deputy sheriff, and acted in other places of public trust, discharging his duties faithfully. He has a big heart and a strong

Mr. J. W. Hamilton.

This highly qualified young man is the Democratic entry in the race for County Court Clerk, and so far he has a walk over. Though comparatively young, he has shown good speed several times, having won in several races, going under the string several lengths ahead, and the knowing ones are anxious to back him again. He is a splendid organizer and campaigner and his work always counts in summing up the returns. His kind, affable and accommodating manner makes friends for him, and eminently qualifies him for a place of public trust.

The office, which he seeks, is one of the most important in the gift of the people. He becomes the custodian of the records which contain the deeds and titles to all the land in the county, and proper care of and entries in these records can alone determine the rights of the people and prevent confusion and a state anarchy. Here the evidence of the real wealth of the county is deposited, and Mr. Hamilton's long and acceptable service as Circuit Clerk is a guaranty that he is fully prepared to discharge the duties of County Clerk, and a large majority of the voters will express the same opinion at the polls in November.
